Technical training

Certificate of completion

This is to certify that Rossanno Olthof

has successfully completed the Zaptec Technical Training Program.

This certification acknowledges the successful completion of the required courses, equipping them with knowledge and skills to proficiently install all Zaptec products.

Disclaimer: You already know this, but just a reminder: always use a certified electrician when necessary.